ABOUT THE NEIGHBORHOOD

WELCOME TO THE CASTRO

The Castro is one of San Francisco's most iconic and vibrant neighborhoods, known for its rich cultural history, lively commercial corridors, and strong neighborhood identity. Centered around Castro Street, the neighborhood features a diverse mix of independent retailers, restaurants, cafés, bars, entertainment venues, and neighborhood-serving businesses. Its walkable streets, historic architecture, and established residential community contribute to a distinctive urban atmosphere that attracts both locals and visitors.

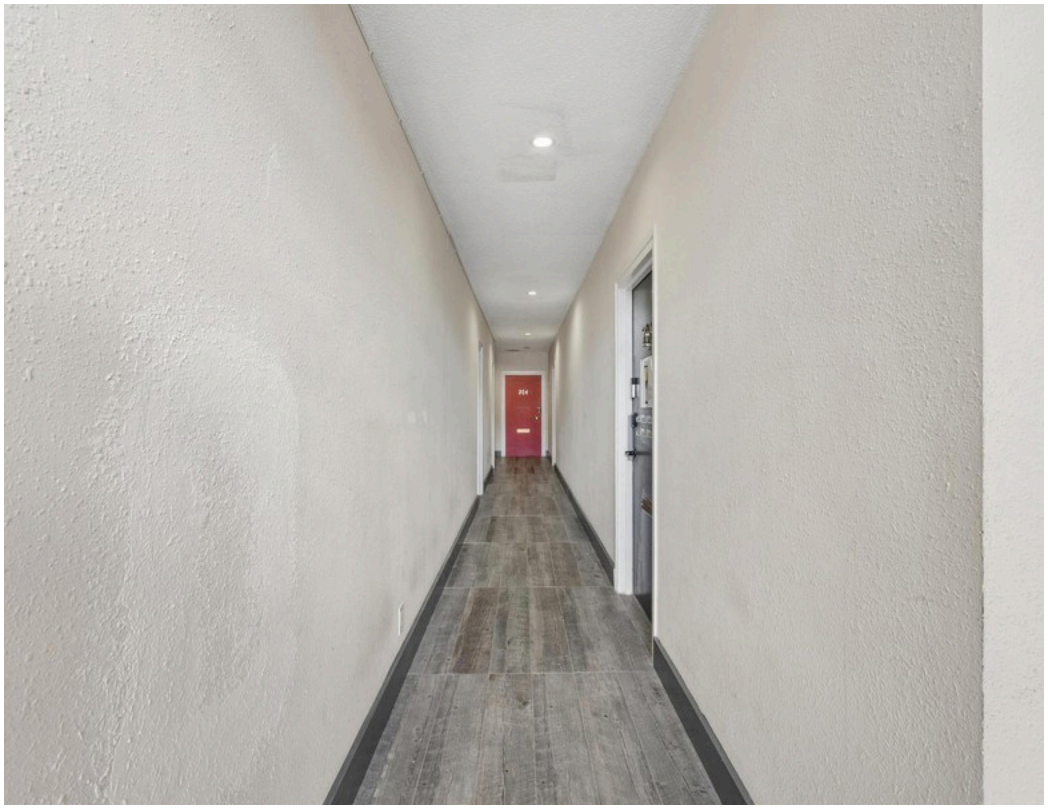

The neighborhood benefits from convenient public transportation, including Muni Metro and multiple bus lines, providing connections to Downtown San Francisco and surrounding neighborhoods. With an active dining and nightlife scene, year-round community events, and a well-established reputation as a cultural destination, the Castro remains one of San Francisco's most recognizable and dynamic neighborhoods.
